OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 9 February 1965

25X1 1. [] Mr. McCone, accompanied by several Agency representatives, continued the briefing of the House Defense Appropriations Subcommittee. See memorandum for the record for details.

25X1 2. [] Met with Chairman Rivers, House Armed Services Committee, and advised him of the Agency's intention to re-institute the summer-employment program, utilizing children and dependents of Agency employees. After brief discussion, Chairman Rivers indicated he had no objection. General Carter's office has been notified verbally.

25X1 3. [] Met with Mr. John Sullivan, Assistant to Senator Brewster (D., Md.), and confirmed the breakfast for 8:00 a.m. tomorrow. Mr. Sullivan indicated that the Senator was looking forward very much to meeting with us tomorrow morning.

25X1 4. [] Met briefly with Jim Gohrig, Senate Committee on Aeronautical and Space Sciences, but was unable to fix a time for briefing the Committee staff as requested on Friday. I will meet again with him on Thursday and attempt at that time to settle the briefing.

25X1 5. [] Met with Mr. Orville Watkins, Assistant to Commissioner Polanco, who advised that the governor's presence rules out any possibility of meeting with the Commissioner during the next week or so.
